OPENING QUESTION:

"The Bible is not God's word about man, it is man's word about God."

-Carlton Pearson

Discuss this quote from Carlton Pearson. How would it change how you read certain passages in the Bible? Even foundational passages? Think particularly of the ones we are discussing in this series.

MEDITATION:

This Breath, Sound, and Body Meditation is from UCLA's Mindful Awareness Research Center. It is a 12-minute guided meditation that brings your awareness to your body and your surroundings, through your breath. Play this sound file for your group, perhaps also with a calming soundtrack.

CLOSING PRAYER:

God, Your Spirit is described in such vivid terms in the scriptures: as wind, breath, fire, cloud, water, wine. These dynamic word pictures contrast starkly with the heavy, fixed imagery of material things and of gods of our own making. Thank You for being the Spirit that animates, purifies, holds mystery, moves and flows, foment joy, and spreads peace. Let us move in that Spirit daily. Amen.
